(here in often after referred as “VJSS”)

(here in after both C.M.C.S College and VJSS are jointly referred to as ‘Parties’ and individually as ‘Party’)

1. This MOU is drafted between two organizations in collaboration with the Faculty of Science-BSc (Regular) of C.M.C.S College, Nashik and the Zoology Department of it.
2. This MOU is established between Commence, Management, and Computer Science (C.M.C.S) College, Nashik, and Vanyajiv Saurakshan Bahuoodeshiya Sanstha or VJSS, situated in Niphad, District- Nashik.
3. Both parties share common interests and objectives, and they shall create effective channels of communication and collaboration to enhance and further their respective activities within the institution, departments, and various community outreach programs of the institute.
4. The cooperation between both parties may be extended to any other areas that prove mutually beneficial to the organizations.
5. Vanyajiv Saurakshan Bahuoodeshiya Sanstha, also known as VJSS, is a non-government organization (NGO) located in Niphad within Nashik District. This organization focuses on safeguarding and preserving wildlife and nature. Its primary goal is to research, protect, and conserve the environment and wildlife. VJSS operates as a non-profit organization and is dedicated to raising awareness within society about the importance of nature and wildlife conservation. Additionally, it offers training programs to educate the younger generation about the need to protect and preserve our ecosystems.
6. Per the MOU, VJSS will offer logistical and personnel support to C.M.C.S College, Nashik, including but not limited to:
 - i) Onsite training leveraging VJSS organization's expertise.
 - ii) Training and guidance on snake conservation techniques and knowledge about snake protection.
 - iii) Conducting awareness programs and training on the college campus regarding snake bites.
 - iv) Organizing visits to wildlife study locations.
7. C.M.C.S College, Nashik, will reciprocate by:
 - i) Assisting in mutual training sessions on various subjects related to wildlife conservation.
 - ii) Facilitating the organization of seminars and workshops on the college premises.
 - iii) Encouraging college students to participate in various awareness programs organized by VJSS.
8. Both parties are responsible for obtaining all necessary internal approvals, consents, permissions, and licenses required for offering the programs as outlined in this MOU.

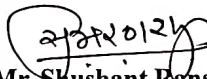

9. Any conflicts between the two parties shall be resolved through mutual agreement, and the resolution shall be binding on both parties.
10. The C.M.C.S College, Nashik has no financial obligation to enlist students and faculty in the free training programs conducted by the VJSS.
11. The VJSS will assist in supplying artifacts such as training participation records and any certificates granted for the participation of the said training to the C.M.C.S College, Nashik upon written request. This information is limited to the students of the C.M.C.S College and at the decision of the VJSS.
12. The agreement remains valid for a period of 3 years from the date of signing and may be extended upon the mutual consent of both parties.
13. This agreement is subject to the intentions of the parties involved and can be dissolved or cancelled by either party with a 30-day notice. It shall not have any legally binding nature. If all parties choose not to act upon it, the MOU loses its validity.
14. Both parties, the C.M.C.S College and the VJSS, are recognized as independent institutions under this MOU.
15. The relationship established here shall not be interpreted as a partnership. Neither Party is authorized to use the other Party's name to make representations or create obligations or liabilities on behalf of the other Party without prior written consent.
